As Speaker, Laurie is making sure that the voices of our Black Members Caucus are leading the way on police accountability measures. She's proud that the House Democratic Members of Color Caucus leading on finding ways to apply an equity lens to our policy and budget decisions. This will be especially important as we work to recover from the deep recession we're in. Laurie has a long history, both before and after being elected to the legislature, of being a fierce justice and equality advocate for people of color, immigrants and refugees, LGBTQ people, women, those with disabilities and other vulnerable people. This commitment will never end."
