| Candidate priority issues | As of 2006: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● American Citizens of all ethnicities first, for jobs and benefits● Minimize job outsourcing; make Spokane more business friendly by cutting taxes and government regulations● For every law passed, eliminate at least one or two useless laws. Law enforcement may be consulted.● More hand-ups than hand-outs. Help the poor help themselves.● Excellence in Education, using what works, like traditional math. Do we need WASL? If so, does it need to be so long?● Less government intrusion, less regulation, and protection of life and your constitutional rights● Promote work ethics for youth for their employability & prosperity● Preserve marriage between man and woman● Better and more affordable health care; support nutrition and complementary or alternate health remedies and personal responsibility● Maintain quality air and water; support alternate fuel sources● Oppose unfunded Federal Mandates that are against the will of the people here in Washington |

| Miscellaneous info | “As a State Representative, you of the 3rd district will be my employers. You can hire me by voting for me. If I disappoint you, you can fire me two years later by voting for my opponent. As a State Representative, you of the 3rd district will be my employers. You can hire me by voting for me. If I disappoint you, you can fire me two years later by voting for my opponent. While I'm in office, God, and the state and federal constitutions will have priority, followed by US citizens of the 3rd district, then Spokane City, Spokane County, Eastern Washington, Washington, me, legal non-citizens, in that order, followed by illegal aliens, and criminals.” Is racism a threat to domestic security in the United States? Why or why not? “Yes, but anti-whites seem to get away with it. About the recent riots over the police killing one black man, what if the cops were black? What if black cops did the same to a white man? Would the media care? I don't think so. We need to see ourselves as human beings, as God's creations, not as black, white, orange, brown, or whatever. When the white man is so vilified, there could be a push-back, like after the Civil War. Why did the KKK come about? Because many whites were being disenfranchised. Also back then, white supremacy, hatred and distrust toward other races was common. Look what they did to the native American Indians.” |
