Candidate priority issues	Police accountability and civil rights, meeting climate goals, tax fairness, strengthening public education, establishing a state bank, health care as a human right, affordable housing
Candidate views on policing. To learn more, check out this ACLU link Policing	From campaign website “Many people can be confident that when they call police that they will receive appropriate assistance. For this we are grateful. However, for communities of color, the reality is that these calls may end in tragedy. When police engage in violence and fail to protect the safety of residents, including peaceful protestors, then these constitute a failure to uphold standards of service and protection. This moment calls for us to demand higher standards for justice and humanity.”
