

ACLU People Power Washington

2020 Police Reform

Candidate Questionnaire

Candidate Name	Mia Su-Ling Gregerson
Position Sought
Campaign Contact Information	Mailing address: Po Box 297, Seahurst, 98062	Phone: Fax:
	Website: miagregerson.com Email: peopleformia@gmail.com Twitter: miagregerson33 Facebook: Mia Su-Ling Gregerson People for Mia

Part I – Yes/No Questions

Please answer the following questions		Yes	No	Additional Comments
1	Do you support statewide policy for:	Y
	Banning chokeholds	Y
	Banning tear gas	Y
	Use of body cameras	Y
2	Do you support abolishing qualified immunity for police?	Y
3	Do you support de-escalation standards and accountability for police?	Y
4	Do you support independent, civilian review of complaints of police use of force?	Y
5	Do you support eliminating investigation and discipline of use of force against civilians as topics for collective bargaining by law enforcement unions?	Y

ACLU People Power Washington – 2020 Police Reform Questionnaire

People Power is the grassroots arm of the ACLU - while we adhere to ACLU principles, we are volunteer-driven and do not work for or officially represent the ACLU. People Power activists work in and from their local communities to further civil rights and liberties for all.

6	Do you support decertification for serious misconduct by law enforcement officers?	Y
7	Do you support ending police use of and access to surplus military equipment?	Y

Part II – Free Response Questions

What is your idea of public safety?

A place where everyone feels accepted and has access to resources they need that will help keep them and others safe. Decriminalizing poverty efforts and more gathering places when it is safe again where people can enjoy public spaces in harmony.

Have you taken the #ElectedsForJustice pledge? If so, what actions do you intend to take to support the 5-part plan? If not, what points are barriers to your support, and why?

I support the 5-part plan. I support it but I have not gone through any formal actions yet.

Under current state labor law, Collective Bargaining Agreements (CBAs) with law enforcement unions are often a barrier for meaningful police reform. What efforts do you support that differentiate police unions from other labor unions so that change can happen without eroding other workers' rights?

I support the continuation of listening to people's perspectives on this and of course engaging our labor leaders for help and advice as the conversations continue.

Are there police reform/accountability measures that are not addressed here that you think would be productive to pursue?

Hiring a more diverse workforce and hiring people from the community to help work in partnership on these complicated issues. Trusted messengers should be resourced and supported by being at the tables when decisions are being made on behalf of the community.

I affirm that all the information provided in response to this questionnaire is true, complete, and correct to the best of my ability, and that no relevant matter has been

ACLU People Power Washington – 2020 Police Reform Questionnaire

People Power is the grassroots arm of the ACLU - while we adhere to ACLU principles, we are volunteer-driven and do not work for or officially represent the ACLU. People Power activists work in and from their local communities to further civil rights and liberties for all.

omitted.

Signature	On File	10/07/20
Printed Name	Mia Gregerson

ACLU People Power Washington – 2020 Police Reform Questionnaire

People Power is the grassroots arm of the ACLU - while we adhere to ACLU principles, we are volunteer-driven and do not work for or officially represent the ACLU. People Power activists work in and from their local communities to further civil rights and liberties for all.