Candidate views on policing. To learn more, check out	“Every person in every community has the right to feel safe in their homes and in their neighborhoods. But we see

this ACLU link Policing	more and more people afraid. Afraid of going to school, the movies, church, or a concert. Afraid to call the police when they need them. Afraid to send their kids out into the world. We can and must do better across the board—from holding police accountable when they use excessive force to promoting common-sense gun safety legislation to keep weapons out of the hands of those who wish to do our communities harm.” “Our first responders must receive adequate training that focuses on de-escalation tactics when responding to people experiencing a crisis. We must improve our use of deadly force statute in a way that protects all people and provides recourse when necessary.”
Candidate views on criminal justice reform. To learn more, check out this ACLU link Criminal Justice Reform	“For too long, our criminal justice system has been disproportionately incarcerating black and brown people, devastating generations of families by removing indefinitely the moms and dads that provide emotional and financial support to their children and extended families. Furthermore, our public policy has not supported successful re-entry. Even after one has served their time, policies that limit access to housing, education and jobs set these individuals up for failure, forcing them back to a life of crime to survive. These policies start in the juvenile justice system and continue into the adult incarceration system.”
