Candidate views on policing. To learn more, check out this ACLU link Policing	From https://www.clarkcountytoday.com/news/election-2020-49th-legislative-district-house-of-representatives-position-2/ Answer to: Do you think there needs to be any reform in policing in Washington? If so, what legislation would you propose? If not, please give your reasons. "I believe that we cannot defund our police," Llafet said. "A large majority of our African American community also agree we cannot defund our police. In fact, we must give more resources to our police. Yes, we need to do reform. Yes, we need to hold them accountable, but we cannot defund them. What is more important is the safety of our cities that we have seen in Seattle and Portland, that have gone with amazing, reckless destruction, and mayors have not been able to make those cities safe. Those small businesses have been suffering also as a result of the lawlessness in those cities.” Llafet also spoke to systemic racism in relation to the issue of policing, saying he believes systemic racism does exist in the form of some legislation, but is not rampant. He said he sees raising up minority leadership as more important.
