ACLU People Power Washington – 2020 Police Reform Questionnaire
 People Power is the grassroots arm of the ACLU - while we adhere to ACLU principles, we are volunteer-driven and do not work for or officially represent the ACLU. People Power activists work in and from their local communities to further civil rights and liberties for all.

Part II – Free Response Questions

What is your idea of public safety?

Not enforcing unconstitutional laws on the public, protecting and serving and not menacing the public.

Have you taken the #ElectedsForJustice pledge? If so, what actions do you intend to take to support the 5-part plan? If not, what points are barriers to your support, and why?

I have not. I haven't reviewed it during my campaign due to other obligations, but I am committed to justice for all citizens.

Under current state labor law, Collective Bargaining Agreements (CBAs) with law enforcement unions are often a barrier for meaningful police reform. What efforts do you support that differentiate police unions from other labor unions so that change can happen without eroding other workers' rights?

I support any effort that can create change for the better without destroying our society in the process. More right to the people, more liberty!

Are there police reform/accountability measures that are not addressed here that you think would be productive to pursue?

Randomized drug testing and random police ride alongs by elected representatives, independent citizen groups and independent review of police misconduct.

I affirm that all the information provided in response to this questionnaire is true, complete, and correct to the best of my ability, and that no relevant matter has been omitted.
